

Welcome to our Reading Morning

We can do it!

Reading at Banks Road...

Celebrating books and reading...

Reading at Banks Road...

Lots of authors have visited our school, to share their books with us.

We can do it!

Reading at Banks Road...

Levi Tafari, a local poet, visited our school yesterday.

Levi performed some of his poems during assembly.

He then delivered workshops in Years 4 and 5.

Reading for Pleasure

The National Literacy Trust's research has found:

'Young people who enjoy reading very much are 3 times as likely to read above the level expected for their age compared with young people who do not enjoy reading at all.'

We love reading at Banks Road....

We can do it!
